

January 27, 1970

Dear Harold:

Just have a minute, but it occurred to me that when I wrote you I didn't give you my home address. So you have it if you ever need it :

Janine McCabe
81 Paul Avenue
Brisbane, California

Phone (415) 467-9391

Hal Verb called me last night and he's arranged for the few people in and around Berkeley who are still active in this thing to get together next week. Paul Hoch and someone who used to be very actively working for Mark Lane - I've heard his name before but I've forgotten it now - anyway they'll all be there so it should be rather interesting.

The last letter I received from you, you mentioned you needed a little help with some research - I spoke to Paul Hoch but he hadn't yet received your letter regarding that matter. I'll be more than happy to help if I can - I'll need a little more information as to the time it took place - I'll speak to Paul about it when I meet him next Tuesday.

You also sent me an article from Look - I've enclosed it here - Is this what you intended to send me - Or did you send me the wrong article? At first, I read it through and was beginning to feel very dense but then I decided you must have meant to send something else.

My boss just walked in the door so I have to run.

Let me know about the article - if you haven't a copy of what you intended me to read let me know what issue and I'll see if I can scout up a copy.

Janine is writing you a letter, but it's a slow process -

Charlie